The Burr Ridge Park District & Village of Willowbrook — For Active Adults on the Go

Letter From Carrie

While summer has just begun, I have been busy planning our holiday adventures: music, shows and shopping, just to name a few. Hamilton continues to be the talk of the town. We have limited seats available for the actual theater show. Excited to report the Danube River Cruise is going quickly. Buy one get one free in airfare is still available. Call Donna at Hinsdale Travel now to reserve your space. Take me out to the ball game! The new Chicago Dogs Stadium is completed and every ticket is the best seat in the house! We are trying to visit some out of the way places in the Chicagoland area. Check out Back Roads Vintage Market, Rockford Japanese Gardens and Quintin Roads Christmas Pageant for something off the beaten path.

William, my grandson, continues to amaze me everyday. At 3 months he is holding his head up, always smiling and now is laughing with Grandma (well maybe at Grandma). Erin and Kyle are coming home the end of June. I thought I would have a month in-between each ones arrival. Not going to happen! Actually, I am very excited to have everyone under one roof, I miss them all so very much. My house is going to be full once again! My favorite month is July, so dreams do come true.

Many new adventures are added in this scoop, so we just had to add a few more pages happy reading! ~Love Carrie
